

WHO DO YOU SERVE

The question of “Who Do You Serve” has been around since the beginning. In particular, my observation of the Hide-A-Way Lake Club, Inc., Board of Directors is a great example. Over the years several Board members have apparently had two or more positions of authority. They have been on the Board of HAWL and a member, Board Member, Director, and/or Trustee of another organization within the bounds of HAWL.

Everyone is not privy to the votes of attendant organizations in HAWL, only the votes of the HAWL Board are public knowledge. However, the following excerpt from a Sworn Deposition will offer a brief glimpse into a vote, not by the HAWL BOD, but directly affects every member of HAWL.

In a Sworn Deposition:

Q. “... I think you said it was considered and ultimately voted on by the board of director in June of 2008, at the time that that lease [Spillway] with the church was considered by the Hide-A-Way Board of Directors, did you vote on way or the other on that lease?”

A. “For the Hide-A-Way Board of Directors?”

Q. “Yes, sir.”

A. “Yes.”

Q. “Did you also vote as a member of the board of directors of the church to enter into that lease?”

A. “Yes.”

The question remains, Who do you serve?

Matthew 6:24

“No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.”
